

Englewood Flyer

November 21, 2019

No School Nov. 25-29

Patience Tool

“I am strong enough to wait.”

You are your child’s most important teacher. Having patience with your child can sometimes be trying and takes practice but there are two pay-offs:

1. Your child will learn patience from your example.
2. You will feel the benefit of increased patience in this world of ever increasing stress and high pressure.

Modeling patience will help them understand and learn it. The opposite is also true-if we are impatient, our children will learn to be impatient.

Important Dates

November

- 21 3rd Grade Music Performance 6:30
- 22 Grandparent Lunch
- 22 Western/Flannel Dress up Day
- 25-26 Parent Teacher Conferences
- 25-29 No School

December

- 5 Super Singers Performance 6:00
- 10 Orchestra Concert @ Parrish
- 13 Disney Dress up day
- 23-Jan 3 Winter Break

Marking Coats and Jackets

With the help of school staff the inside tags of student's coats and jackets will be marked during the week of Dec. 2nd-6th. If you do not wish us to mark your student’s coat or jacket with permanent marker please let the office know by calling 503-399-3143 or emailing stenlund_kendra@salkeiz.k12.or.us.

Read At Home Goal

Everyone who meets their November RAH goal will get to hear a story from Mayor Chuck Bennett and learn more about our Englewood Neighborhood on December 5th.

Remember to fill out your RAH calendars with time spent reading and listening. You can watch your teachers read to you using the link on the Englewood website <https://englewood.salkeiz.k12.or.us>

Lost and Found

Check it out! Please come pick up your coats and jackets. Everything in the Lost and Found will be donated to a charity after 8:00 pm on Tuesday Nov. 26th.

Parent Teacher Conferences

They are coming November 25-26th. There is still time to sign up, go to <https://qr.go.page.link/G7aaW>.

Autumn Break Free Lunch

Provided by Sodexo
Monday-Wednesday , Nov. 25-27th
12:00-12:30
Englewood Elementary cafeteria